

VERDT large

An individual long-term partnership.

From CZK 2 million. A 24–60 month horizon. An individual agreement with APF AGRICULTURAL INVESTMENT LTD.

Redemption or conversion

Rights arise from a separate agreement.

The agreement defines token quantity, lock-up, redemption terms and any option to convert into a predefined APF Malta interest. The token itself does not confer equity.

Use of proceeds under the white paper

The proceeds from the sale of VERDT will be used by the issuer to finance the subsidiary's acquisition of agricultural assets, agricultural operations and the token project, including exchange listings, liquidity and marketing. Liabilities arising from asset acquisitions and operating liabilities relating to the operations of the issuer and its subsidiary will be paid.

Collateral and risks

Terms are agreed individually.

Any share pledge, valuation and effectiveness of collateral are defined in specific documentation under applicable law. Price and liquidity may fluctuate. The entire amount may be lost. Contractual redemption depends on LTD's ability to meet its obligations.

Next steps

Discuss your specific requirements.

Sales under the white paper are planned from 1 January 2027. Submitting the form requests preparation of an agreement and registers interest before sales begin. Contact: info@verdanteurope.com.

Terms and legal information

Working version dated 16 October 2026. Sales and payments are not active. New contractual terms will be assessed against the white paper before launch. This does not confirm regulatory approval or listing.
